Summer Lite

August 1 Reading, Reflecting, and Responding to Racism

Guest speakers: Janice Etchison, Pamela Moore, and Linda Williams.

Service leaders: Mary Desmone and Michele Paich

The UUCE/Community book group started out in the summer of 2020 to read about and understand racism and how it is deeply woven into the fabric of our society.

Please join us to hear personal reflections about our journey towards anti-racism and our path moving forward.

August 8 Reflections on Two Common Religious Sayings

Guest Speaker: Professor Steve Sullivan (see bio on pg. 7)

Coordinator: Al Richardson

Two common sayings have long intrigued the speaker: “everything happens for a reason,” and “there but for the grace of God go I.” They seem widely appreciated, but Steve will share his mixed feelings about them.

August 15 Listening and Reflecting

Coordinators Michele Paich and Dixie Morrow.

We will create breakout rooms with about twelve people in each. Everyone will have an opportunity to share their feelings about a short reading. No one is obligated to speak.

Please note there will be no services on August 22 or 29

The Sunday Services Committee is taking a short break to renew and recharge.

MINISTER'S MUSINGS

Greetings everybody! My family and I are getting so excited about our move. (And also, stressing out about it. Moving is just so difficult!) Plans are well underway, and before you know it, we'll be joining you in Erie!

Changes are about as we emerge from our virtual year together into a whole new adventure in ministry! As of the first of July, I began my new schedule as your three-quarters time, settled minister. What does that mean, exactly? Well, as a settled minister I am called by you, the congregation, to be in a unique relationship with you as your religious leader. This is an abiding relationship that will go forward not just for a year, or two years...but in an open-ended manner. I'm honored and delighted to accept your call and begin this new chapter of our ministry together.

Three-quarters time means that I am being paid and called to serve about seventy-five percent of a full-time minister's schedule. How will this work? The Unitarian Universalist Association recommends that three-quarters time ministers build one off-week into their schedule for each month of service. This allows part-time ministers to achieve an appropriate work-life balance and work no more than the number of hours they are contracted to serve.

Most weeks I'll work a full-time ministerial schedule, including two or three times in the pulpit each month, weekdays at my office, some evening meetings, occasional Saturday workshops, attendance at community events, etc. And then once a month I'll have a scheduled off-week. During this time I'll be away from congregational duties and reachable only for pastoral and congregational emergencies.

If this all sounds complicated, don't worry! I covenant with you to communicate clearly which times of the month I'll be away and to make sure there is pastoral care available to you while I'm gone.

For example, for this month, my off-week will be August 14th through the 20th. I will virtually attend the monthly Board of Trustees meeting during that time, but will not be attending other events and meetings, answering email or phone calls. If you send me an email or call me during this time, you'll receive a reply letting you know that it's my scheduled off-week, and that I'll get back to you when my time away from the congregation is over.

Remember that you can always call Joanne in the office if you have questions, or contact one of the pastoral care associates (Mary Beth McCarthy at mbp1@psu.edu and Christine Linke at chrislinke@hotmail.com) if you need to talk to someone before I get back. We are here for you!

I know that we'll have some adjustments to make after our virtual year together, and as I move from half-time to three-quarters time service. But I feel certain that we can figure this out together.

I can't wait to see you and get to know the congregation in a whole new way this year. Meanwhile, be well, be safe, and enjoy the rest of your summer!

Many blessings, and I'll see you soon!
Kristina

PRESIDENT'S PONDERINGS

It is an exciting time for our congregation. We are thinking about and planning for getting back together in person finally after a long time of physical separation. Our building has been newly sided. Welcoming entrance enhancements and a concert are being planned as a memorial to Doug Russell and most exciting of all, we start our new church year with our recently called, settled,  $\frac{3}{4}$  time minister, Reverend Kristina Church. It feels like a lot of new beginnings and a great opportunity. In new and old ways, we will connect and reconnect, maybe on zoom, maybe in person (soon) and continue to offer a message of hope and a community of love and meaningful engagement. Please stay connected to communications sent by email (Weekend News and the Beacon) and announcements during Sunday services as we expand on the info sent to you by mail in mid-July. I feel privileged to be your board president for this next year as we all work together into the future. Please join me in giving a huge thank you to outgoing President Julie Maguire who worked tirelessly for the last two years as our board president leading us through changes and challenges with her wisdom, patience, and good humor. ## GREETERS NEEDED

As we begin our reopening plan for Sunday services, we need greeters for both in-person and virtual services.

No experience is necessary. If you have a friendly smile, like meeting new people, and enjoy welcoming folks to our amazing congregation, you qualify!

New greeters will be paired with an experienced greeter.

If you are interested, please contact Leigh Kostis at Lwko @roadrunner.com or 814-838-2941.

BIOGRAPHY OF OUR GUEST SPEAKER ON AUGUST 8

Steve Sullivan is Associate Professor of Philosophy at Edinboro University. He has taught Philosophy at EUP since 2004, with specialties in ethics and philosophy of religion. He was born and raised in the New York City metropolitan area. Steve has been a member of UUCE for about ten years and currently is on its Board of Trustees. He calls himself a Tolkien geek and aspiring amateur standup comic.

WEST MILLCREEK FOOD PANTRY

Until we resume face-to-face services, we will continue to make only monetary donations to the Food Pantry. You have been very generous in the past few months, and one congregant was EXTREMELY generous (thank you so much to whomever you are). Dropping off food now should be discouraged because those who work at the pantry (all senior citizens) are trying very hard to be Covid-safe for their own health. If you would like to make a monetary donation, please make your check out to "UUCE" and write "Millcreek Food Pantry" on the memo line.

Mail donations to: UUCE P.O. Box 3495 Erie, PA 16508

These gifts allow the Pantry to purchase additional food from NWPA Second Harvest Food Bank, and every dollar buys more food than you could purchase from the grocery store. Their website states that $25 can buy 125 meals. How awesome is that?!

Once we are able to have services at the church again, we will resume collecting food.

Thanks to all who donate! ~Deb DiPlacido
